

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Javier CARNICER is working as a research associate in the in the project „Educational Careers and Adolescent Detachment Processes in Male Youths from Turkish Immigrant Families“. He is a doctoral candidate and a Lecturer at the department of Education, University of Hamburg and Westfälische Wilhelms-University Münster. Research/teaching interests: Social Inequalities, Migration, Qualitative Education and Socialization Research.

Violeta CVETKOVSKA OCOKOLJIC works as an Assistant Professor (from 2008) on Faculty of Culture and Media, at the Megatrend University, in Belgrade. She is the author of several published papers and author of book Communication: Man and Culture, and coauthor of several books.

Tatjana CVETKOVSKI works as an Associate Professor (from 2008) on Faculty for Business Studies, at the Megatrend University, in Belgrade. She is the author of several published papers, and author and coauthor of several books.

Carla DAHL-JØRGENSEN is professor at the Norwegian University of Science and Technology (NTNU) in Trondheim, Norway at the Department of Social Anthropology and the Faculty of Social Sciences and Technology Management. Professor Dahl-Jørgensen has many years of experience doing contract research for private and public companies as well as basic research in the field of organizational anthropology focusing mainly on topics related to health and working environment, gender and working conditions, internationalization and globalization of working life.

Trine Elaine EIKEN is a Ph.D. student at the Department of Psychology at The Norwegian University of Science and Technology (NTNU). After reaching her master's degree in psychology in 2002, she worked as a university lecturer at NTNU. From 2007-2009 she held the position of Senior Advisor at NOA – National Surveillance of Working Environment and Occupational Health, a department at the National Institute of Occupational Health. Her main fields of interest include the psychosocial work environment, occupational health and safety, and temporary employment.

Ruth HEALEY is a lecturer in the Department of Geography and Development Studies at the University of Chester.

Vera KING is Professor in the Faculty of Education and Psychology in the University of Hamburg. Research/teaching interests: Adolescence and Youth Research, Gender and Generational Relationships, Social Inequalities, Migration, Qualitative Education and Socialization Research.

Hans-Christoph KOLLER is Professor of Research in Education at the University of Hamburg. Research/teaching interests: Philosophy of Education, Qualitative Research in Education.

Cristina MATIUTA is a Senior Lecturer at the University of Oradea, Faculty of Political Sciences and Communication, responsible with scientific research. She teaches in the areas of Civil Society and Political Culture, Political Parties and is a member of the Research Centre on Identity and Migration Issues (RCIMI). Contact: Str. Traian Blajovici nr. 2 Oradea, 410238, Romania, Tel./Fax: +40 259 455 525 Email: cristinamatiuta@yahoo.com, www.e-migration.ro

Per Øystein SAKSVIK is Professor at the Department of Psychology, Norwegian University of Science and Technology. Professor Saksvik obtained a Ph.D from the Norwegian University of Science and Technology in Trondheim, Norway in 1991 in Occupational Health Psychology. Research experience include seven years as researcher at The Institute of Social Research in Industry, Trondheim, Norway. Research focus: occupational health and safety, organizational interventions, and organizational change.

Elvin SUBOW is student of educational science, English and History at the University of Hamburg and currently working as a student assistant in the research project „Educational Careers and Adolescent Detachment Processes in Male Youths from Turkish Immigrant Families“. Research interests /Thesis: Qualitative migration research, insider/outsider debate.

Marius I. TĂȚAR works as an Assistant Professor in Political Science at the University of Oradea, Faculty of Political Science and Communication. His main research areas include political participation and democratization. Contact: Str. Traian Blajovici nr. 2 Oradea, 410238, Romania, Tel./Fax: +40 259 455 525, E-mail: mtatar@uoradea.ro; www.e-migration.ro

Sturle Danielsen TVEDT is Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, Norwegian University of Science and Technology.

Irena Colakova VELJANOVA is associated with the Human Welfare Studies and Services, School of Social Sciences, University of Western Sydney, Australia.

Janina ZOELCH is working as a research associate in the project „Educational Careers and Adolescent Detachment Processes in Male Youths from Turkish Immigrant Families“. She is a doctoral candidate and a Lecturer at the department of Education, University of Hamburg. Research/teaching interests: Adolescence and Youth Research, Social Inequalities, Migration, Qualitative Research in Education.