

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Cristina MATIUȚA is Associate Professor at the University of Oradea and head of the Department of Political Science and Communication. She teaches in the areas of Civil Society, Political Parties and Theory and practice of democracy. She is Jean Monnet professor in the field of Active Citizenship, Identity and Democratic Governance in the European Union. E-mail: cmatiuta@uoradea.ro

Sanda-Daniela ALEXEICIUC is director of the Center for Development on Education and Health (CEDES), Chisinau, Republic of Moldova. She graduated the Faculty of International Relations and Political Studies at Moldova State University and she has an extensive experience on project management and implementation. E-mail: danielaalexeiciuc@yahoo.com .

Laura SURDU is a researcher with extensive experience in social research. The main topics of her interests are in Roma related issues, namely education, health, social exclusion, segregation and discrimination. She graduated Faculty of Psychology of Bucharest University, following with a M.A. in Social Policy and a PhD in Sociology. Currently, she is research consultant located in Budapest and affiliate member of Research Institute for Quality of Life, Bucharest.

Aleksandar BOZIC (Bosnia and Herzegovina) holds an M.A. in Sociology and Social Policy from the City University London, United Kingdom. He had worked as practitioner, researcher and policy analyst for various public, nonprofit and international organizations in Bosnia and Herzegovina before he joined in 2013 as a participant to International research project Remigrations and transformations in post-socialist European region operated by several research partners from Croatia, Germany and Austria. During 2011/2012, through participation in ERSTE Foundation Fellowship for Social Researchers Generations in Dialogue he additionally studied on the effects of the brain gain migration process in the transitional context. He worked on various research projects and participated indifferent international conferences. His main research interests are in the fields of migration, social policy and social protection. Contact: bozic.aco@gmail.com linkedin.com/pub/aleksandar-bozic/a/a44/a71

Irina POP is PhD lecturer at the University of Oradea. She is specialized in place branding and PR communication. She obtained a MA diploma at Lancaster University. Her current research interest is focused on the issue of trafficking of human beings and the public perception of this phenomenon. E-mail: popirinamihaela@gmail.com

Lia POP is university professor at the Department of Political Sciences and Communication, University of Oradea. She is the Director of the Editorial Board of the Journal of Identity and Migration Studies (JIMS) and the founder of the Research Center for Identity and Migration Issues (RCIMI).

Marius I. TĂȚAR (PhD) is a Lecturer in Political Science at the University of Oradea, Department of Political Science and Communication. His main research areas include political participation and democratization in Central and Eastern Europe. Contact: Str. Traian Blajovici nr. 2 Oradea, 410238, Romania, E-mail: mtatar@uoradea.ro.